He wanted to remember. She would rather forget. Memories is a compilation from the Closure series which includes the first two books, Closure and Broken. Follow Ben and Ellie Morgan as they recall pieces of their past and deal with the pain and heartache that ensues because of the decisions they've both decided to take, decisions that will change their lives forever. A heart-felt and bittersweet journey, it's one any of us can relate to. Closure: Love is supposed to be forever. Sometimes, we're not meant to keep it. Ben Morgan thought he had it all - fame, fortune, a beloved wife, and a loving family. His work kept him out of the country for long stretches at a time, but he did his best to provide for those he loved. He never imagined that his being away so much would have severe repercussions. When his life starts to shatter and his wife walks away without another glance, he's left to deal with the pain and sorrow of the choices that he's made in the past. Broken: The past is hard to bear, but sometimes, we must face it, no matter the cost. Displeased with the life she'd led, Ellie Morgan walked away from it all in hopes of finding happiness amidst all the turmoil. She knows it's only a matter of time before she has to face the bitter reality of the repercussions caused by her past actions. Broken and bereft, she tumbles head first into her despair. Yet there's always a silver lining to every cloud, a certainty she...
